

Alternative materials- Sustainable options, socially considered

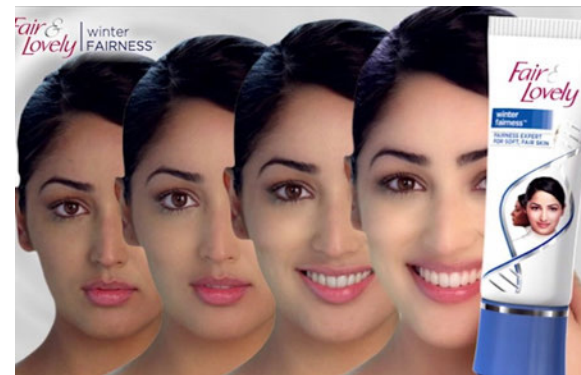

Infusion of plant organelles or bacterium in clothing and garment based tech.

I believe that for every toxic product we have come to rely on, there are healthy alternatives that will benefit us in the long run.

Feminism in India - Collonization of Women's bodies

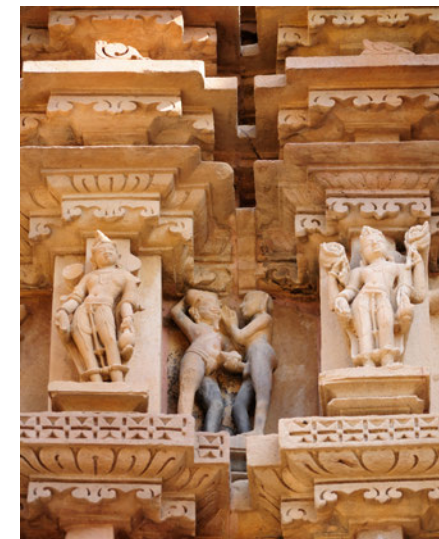

The effects of British Collonialism post Independance. Dissecting Internalized rascism, westernized Hinduism and ideation of european standards of beauty. This is a personal journey of mine. It is based on a childhood of seeing people trying to scrub themselves white or make fun of darker skinned people.

NI Brahmin parents invite alliance for handsome, athletic, extremely fair son, 31/6'1" completed BS Virginia Tech, MS Carnegie Mellon Univ in Computer Science. Joining reputed Software Company in Washington DC; from cultured, beautiful, slim, fair, educated girl. Caste no bar. Respond with detail & photo via email. *

Affects of Western principles on the interpretations of Hinduism

Sex stigma in modern hinduism due to collonialism, the direct contradiction to ancient scripture and the Kamasutra. Heteronormative culture and its contrast to Hinduism pre-collonization. Last year, India passed a landmark law that decriminalizes Gay sex and people tweeted that India was finally westernizing. But that is far from the truth, In fact based on temple art, India is decolonizing

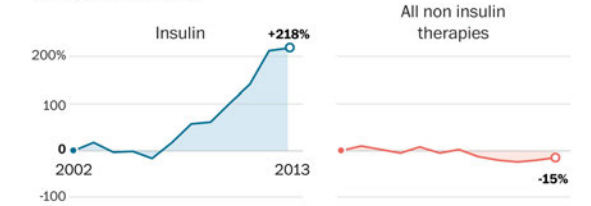

The Ethics behind pharmaceutical patenting

A look at American Corporate greed and its affect on everyday life. The complex beaurocratic and political structure behind price rises in essential drugs and the upcoming Congress hearings.

Spending on insulin has increased faster than other diabetes drugs

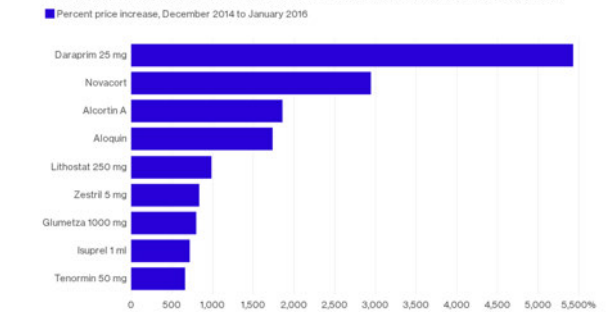

Spending on insulin per patient has skyrocketed, driven by price hikes and increased use. In 2013, insulin spending was more than all other diabetes medications combined.

Note: Does not include rebates or discounts
Source: Journal of the American Medical Association THE WASHINGTON POST

Drugs With Big Price Hikes

Some brand medicines for heart problems, skin conditions, high blood pressure, parasite infections, and kidney issues have had enormous price spikes recently on a percentage basis.

Source: DRG, a unit of Connecture Inc.
Note: Price changes calculated from late December 2014 through January 15, 2016. Bloomberg