High School Students & Their Sustainability Efforts

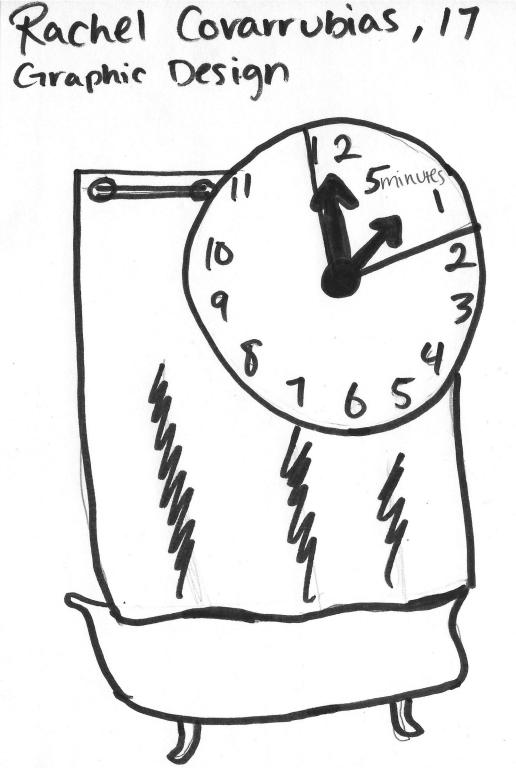

Coya Cambell & Dirm Luawo

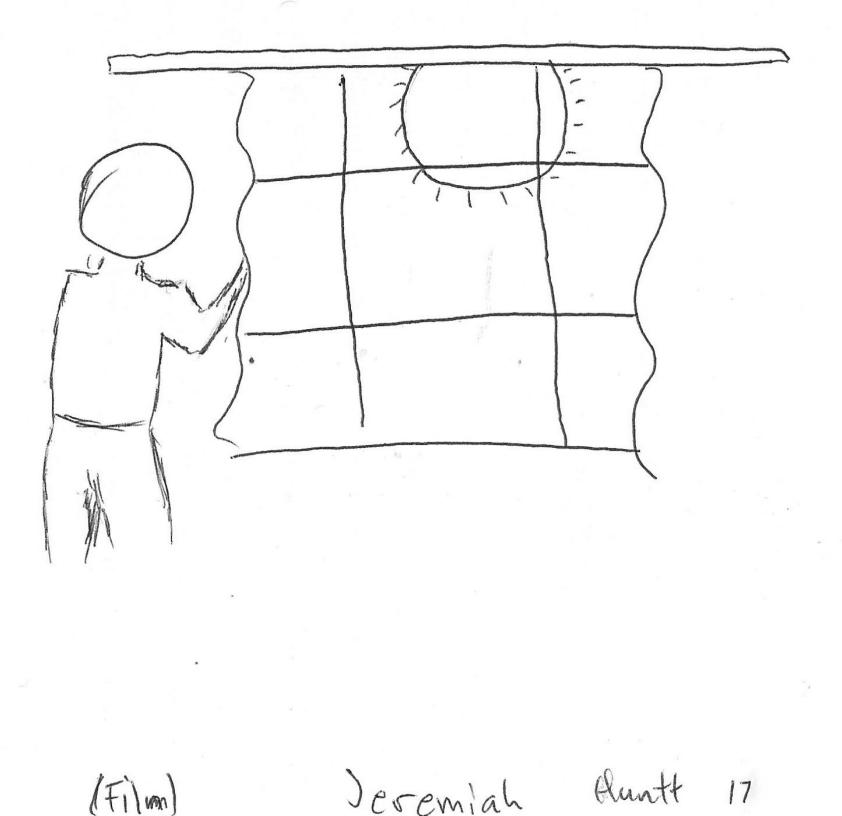

Project Statement

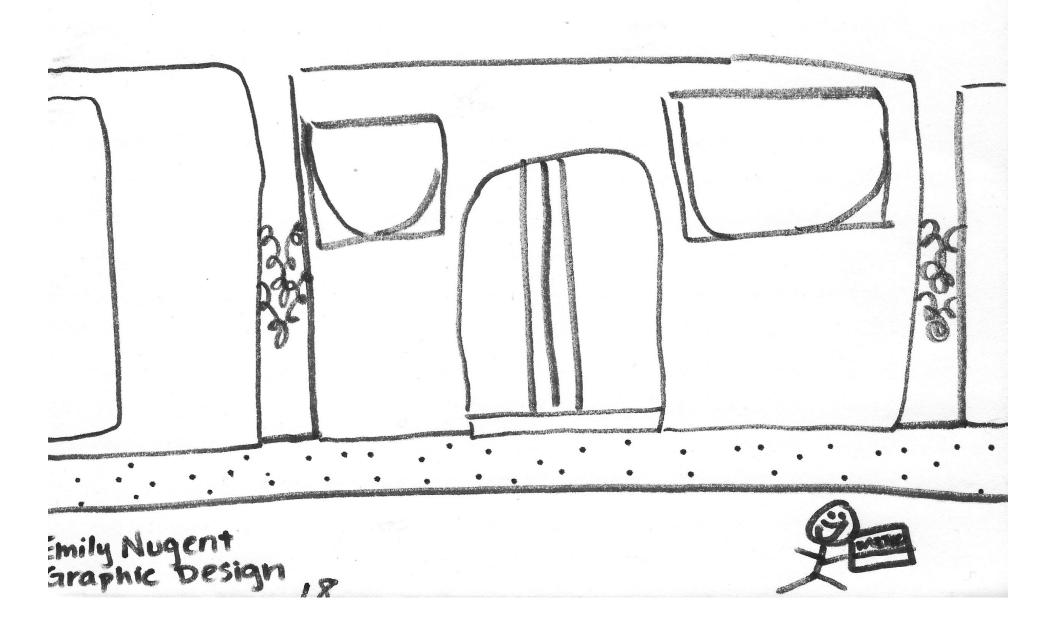

We went back to our high school to see what students know about sustainability. The High School of Art and Design does not have sustainability efforts themselves and implementing would be difficult. We gave an intial statement to each student, "What do you do in your life that is sustainable?" They each had 5 minutes or less to draw with a black marker the question above and in the next series of pages are their drawings. Most students paniced at the time given, and rushed their way through, but most of them are graphic design students, so they're trained to inform and persuade through very simple imagery.

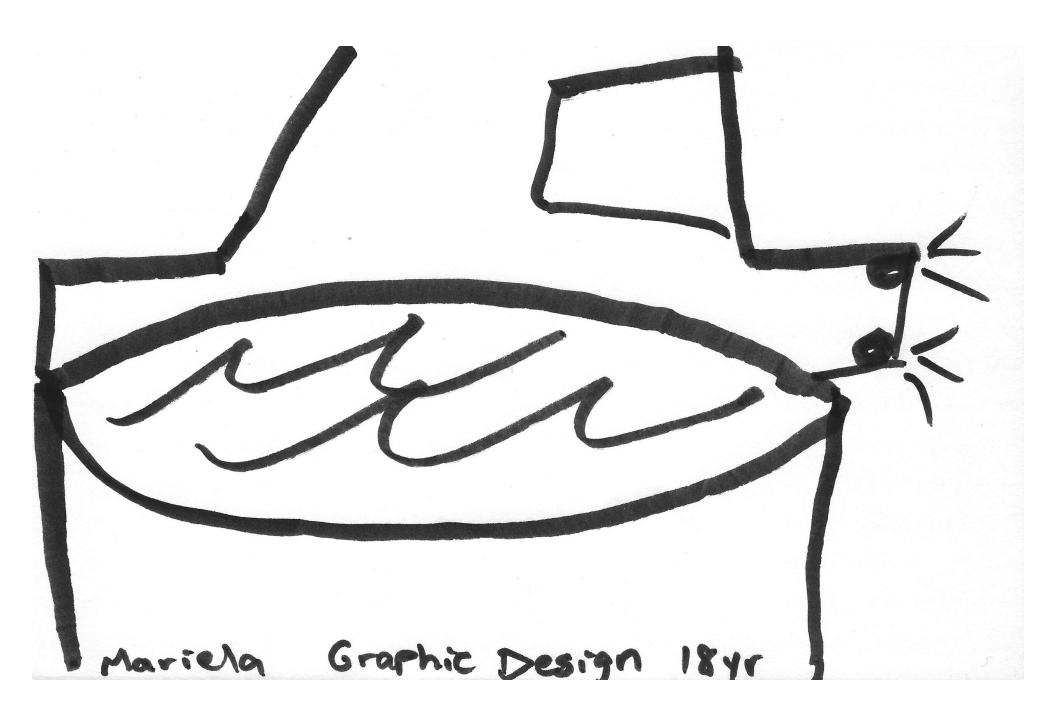

Name, Major, Age	Sustainability Effort	Page
– Rachel Covarrubias, AP Graphic Design, 17	_ Shorter showers	5
– Jeremiah Huntt, Film & Video, 17	Using direct sunlight instead of artificial light	7
_ Emily Nugent, AP Graphic Design, 18	– Taking public transportation	9
– Evanna Phan, AP Graphic Design, 17	– Reusable tote bags for grocery shopping	10
– Elisa Pronina Brauer, AP Graphic Design, 18	_ Disposing trash in their proper bins	11
– Mariela Ramirez, AP Graphic Design, 18	– Carpool	13
– Isabela Ymaj, AP Graphic Design, 17	Biking	15
– Christian Macias, AP Graphic Design, 18	Walking	16
– Eva Rodriguez, Graphic Design, 15	Skating	17
– Adriana Teodoro, AP Graphic Design, 18	Eat less meat	18
– Carter Guthrie, Photography, 17	Paper bags over plastic	19
– Madeline Warshaw, AP Graphic Design, 17	Leave no food waste	21
– Andrew Bencsko, Teacher	_ Take the stairs	23

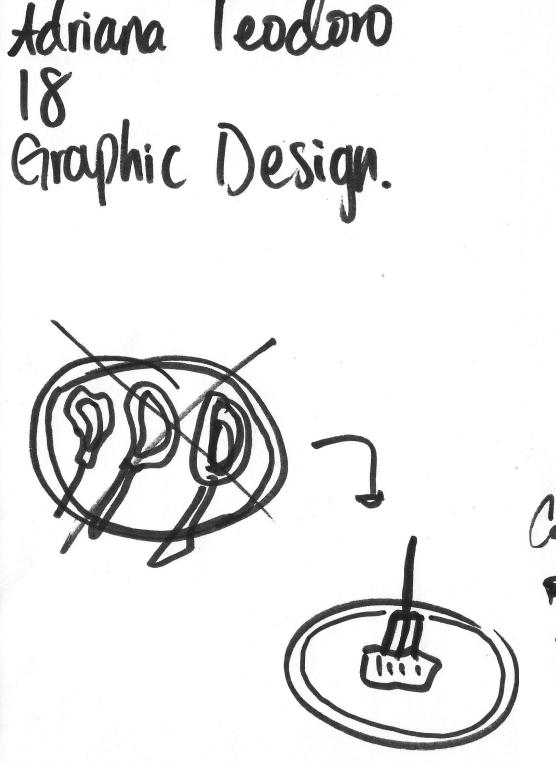

Isabela 4 maj. Age 17. Graphie Design

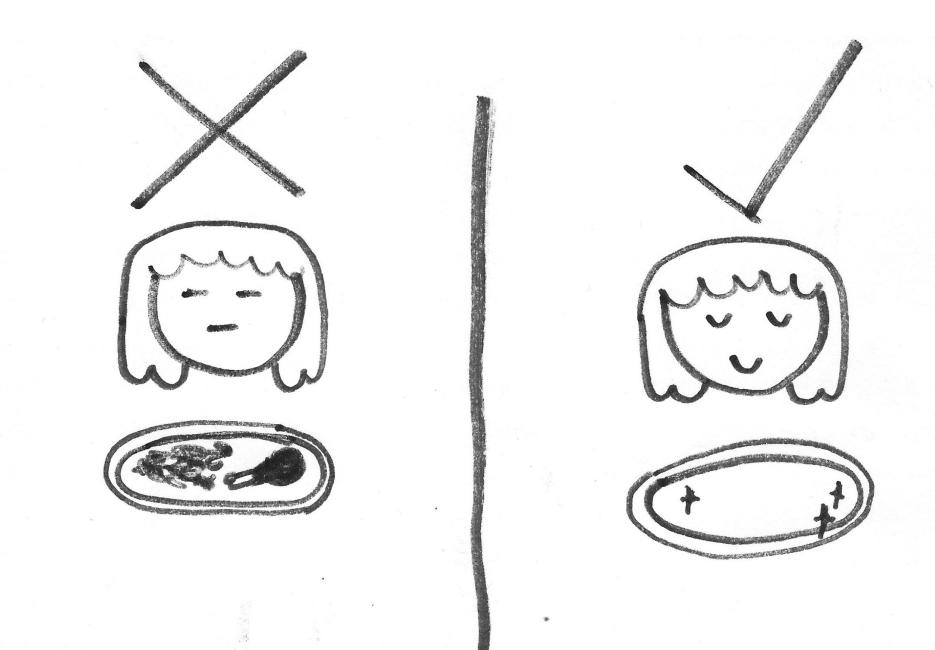

Christian Macios & 18 Graphic Design WALKING Eva Rodriguez Orraphic Design 10th 17

Carter Cruthric Porto 17

Photo

Graphic Design . Madeline Warshaw.17 years

