

Sacred Space

Daniel Han
October 23, 2017

My sacred space is a beach Gazebo with solar panels to get energy for people to charge their electronics, a gutter to catch and collect water, three glass pyramids for light, and 12 ft tall pillars in case of a flood.

I based my gazebo on some docks and other gazebos I saw when I went to the beach with my family.

