

Full-Time Faculty and Staff Benefits

The New School is committed to providing comprehensive employment benefits for its faculty and staff and their eligible dependents. We offer medical and dental care plans, a health care flexible spending account, basic and supplemental life insurance, a retirement plan, a transportation expense reimbursement plan, short- and long-term disability plans, a tuition assistance plan, and an employee assistance program. This site provides detailed information on the benefit plans and programs, including eligibility requirements, cost of coverage, and the enrollment process. If you need additional assistance, contact the Benefits staff at benefitshelp@newschool.com or call 212.229.5671 x4942.

For years, the status of part-time faculty members at The New School, like many universities across the country, has been a source of contention and concern. Part-time professors make up nearly 80 percent of the faculty at The New School, yet earn disproportionately less than full-time professors, face tenuous job security,

