a search of names or usernames on Instagram then simply type out a name to search and we will perform a search on Our service. Note about "Invite Friends" feature: If you choose to invite someone to the Service through our "Invite Friends" feature, you may select a person directly from the contacts list on your device and send a text or an email from your personal account.

You

services (collectively your choice about and use your using our Service and agree that we are providing.

We use third-party analytic tools to help us measure traffic and usage trends for the service. These tools collect information sent by your device or our the Service, including web pages you visit, add-ons to improve Service. Instagram does not access to Analytics information. with analytics information that assists us to identify any particular information that over users so that it cannot be used to individual User.

Instagram account (e.g last name, first name usernames t you provide for your user profile picture choose to find you formation allows us to help you or others a third party soc m. User content (e.g., photos, comments then you will be post to the service. up a link to the third