

A WORLD BEYOND HIS WORLD

ABOUT

THE PHOTOGRAPHS IN THIS BOOK WILL TELL A STORY ABOUT AN OLD MAN WHO LOST HIS EYESIGHT. IN HIS WORLD, HE IMAGINES EVERYTHING TO BE BORING AND IN BLACK AND WHITE. AFTER LOSING HIS EYESIGHT, HE IS UNABLE TO SEE THE BEAUTY THAT LIES WITHIN THE CITY. TRAVELING FROM ONE PLACE TO ANOTHER IN NEW YORK CITY, HE TAKES A SNAPSHOT OF EVERYWHERE HE GOES. ALTHOUGH, HE CAN NOT SEE THE WORLD, HE CREATES HIS OWN IN HIS MIND. WITH ALL THE PHOTOGRAPHS HE TOOK, HE DECIDES TO PUT IT IN HIS JOURNAL AND KEEPS IT TILL THE END. NOT BEING ABLE TO SEE ANYTHING, HE COULD HEAR THE PEOPLE AND THE MOVING THINGS AROUND HIM. HE TRAVELS FROM THE BEACH TO CITY AND HE VISITS THE EMPIRE STATE BUILDING BUT IS UNABLE TO SEE THE BREATHTAKING VIEW OF THE CITY. SPEND HIS DAYS VISITING THE CITY AND LISTENING TO THE LOUD SIRENS IN THE BUILDING AND THE JAZZ MUSIC FROM THE PIANO, WISHING HE COULD SEE THE WORLD BEYOND HIS WORLD. THIS IS SADNESS.

TO SEE...

THE PEOPLE

THE CARS

THE TREES

THE STREETS

THE HOUSES

THE CHILDREN

THE TIME

THE LIGHTS

THE BUILDINGS

THE PUDDLES

THE FASHION

THE LAKE

THE ANIMALS

THE STARS

THE SUBWAY

THE EMPIRE STATE

THE BUILDING

THE FLOWERS

THE MARKET

THE BRIDGE

IMAGINE...

THE DOG

THE PEOPLE

THE CHILDREN

THE MUSIC

THE SIRENS

THE FOOD TRUCKS

THE CARS

THE BUILDINGS

THE TREES

THE SMOKE

THE TRAINS

THE HIGHLINE

THE BOATS

THE STARS

THE CLOUDS

THE CROSSWALKS

THE FLAGS

THE ART

THE CITY

THE PLANTS

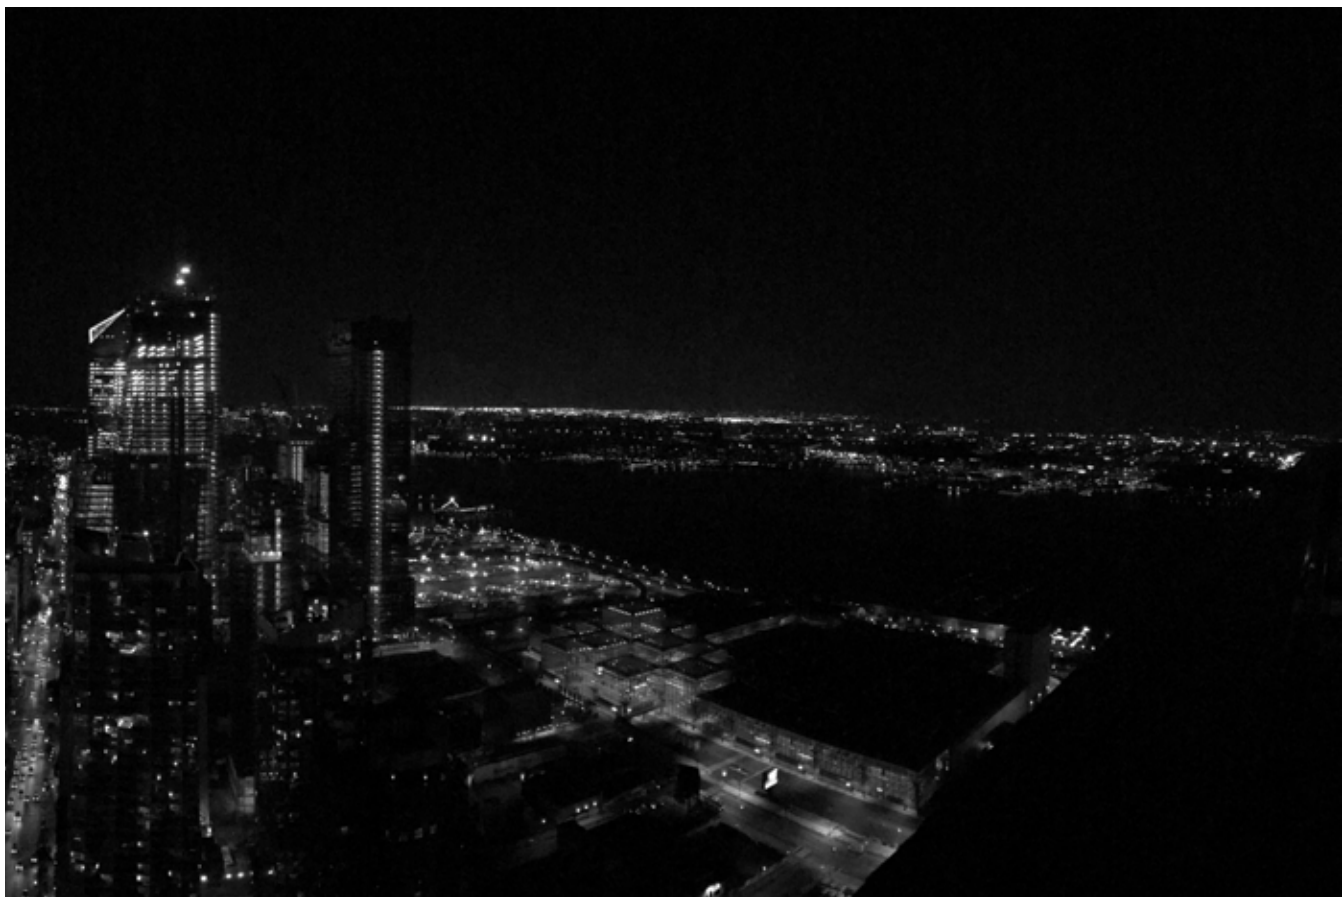

TURNS RIGHT
AND TURNS LEFT

STREET ART IS UNSEEN AND IS A MYSTERY

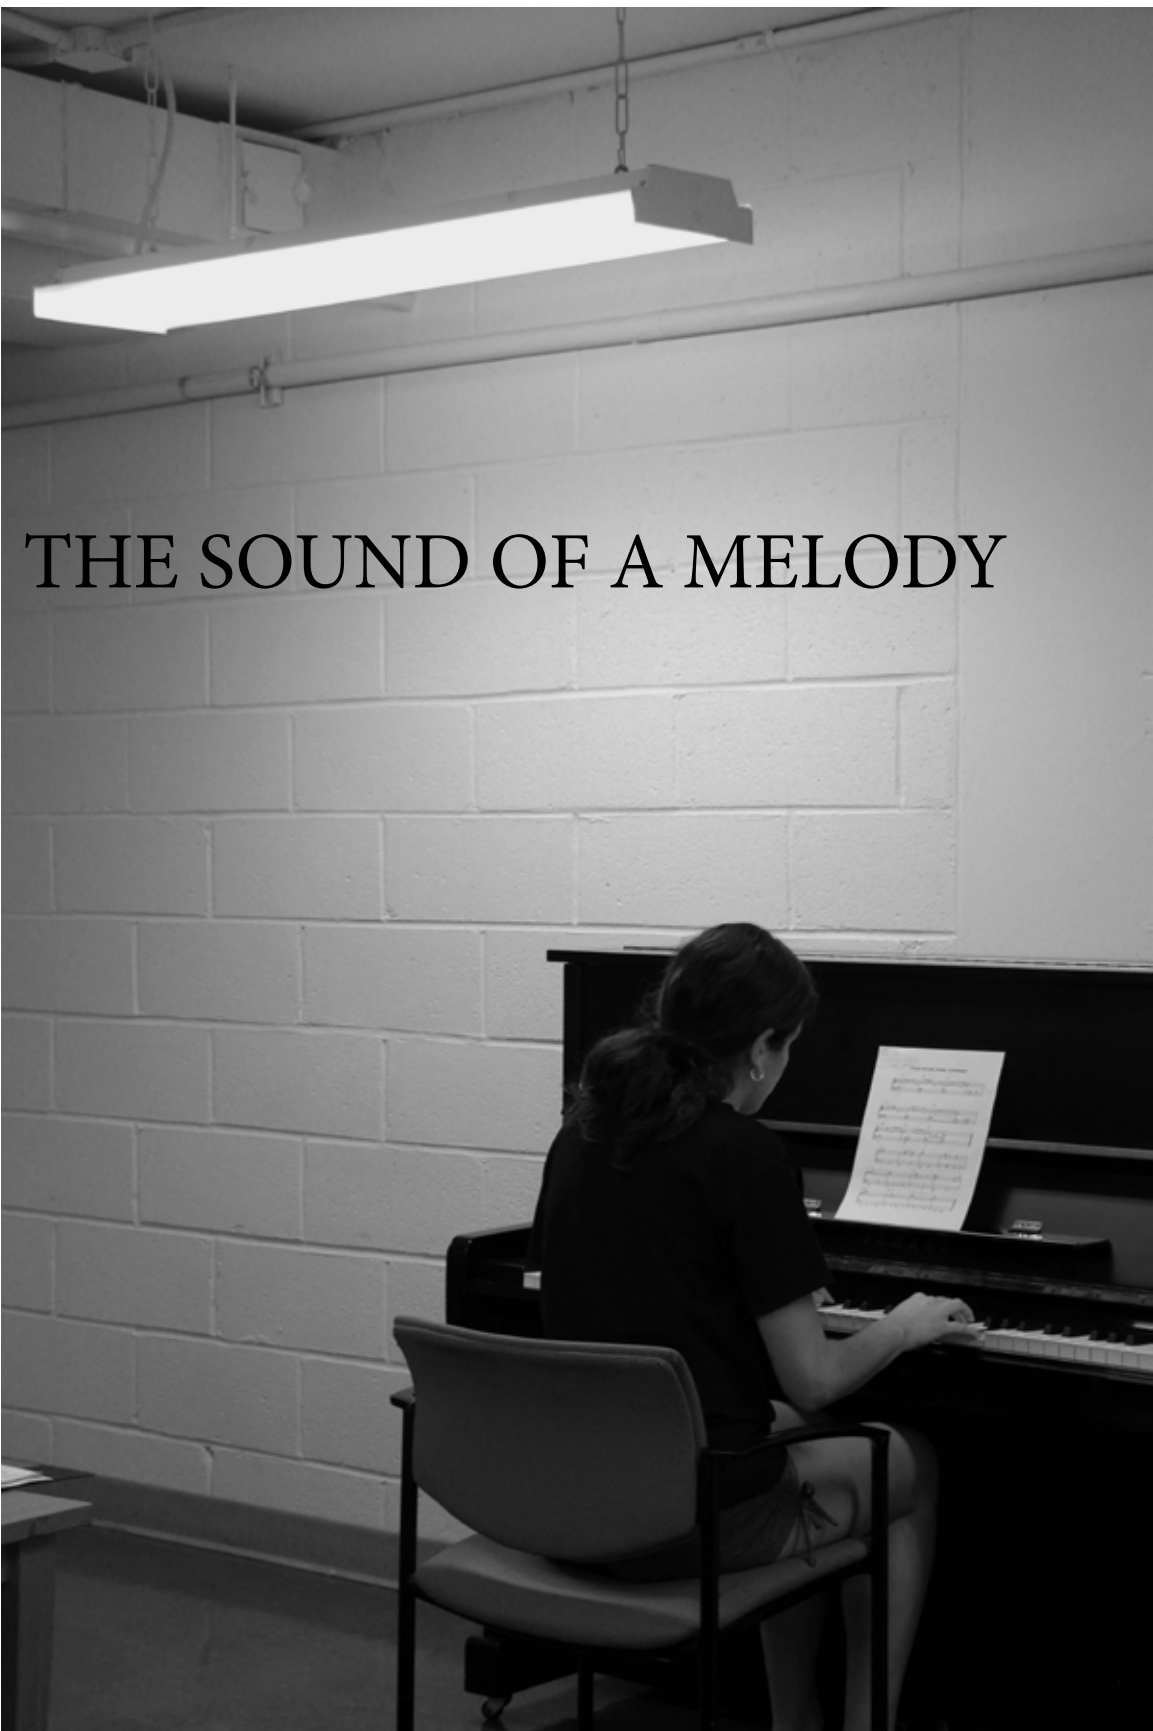

SOUND OF DRUMS

THE SOUND OF A MELODY

SADNESS WITHIN MY SIGHT