MISSING COLLEGE GIRL

Help

My name is Lorenzo Boselli from Italy. Today, I am officially calling out for a help to find my girl, Lisa. We met at the bar Vanini in New York City on the night of Halloween. She is 18 and from Taiwan. Since I met her, she means alot to me, but she suddenly disappeared without a word. If anyone finds her and knows about her disappearance, please please contact to this number...

Her height is average, and skinny. She is very mysterious and never gets out my head since I met her. Why did she disappear? Where did she go? More I think of her, more I go crazy. I want to see her bright and pure smile again as soon as possible. I can't help falling love with her. I have been blaming everything on myself, but nothing had changed. She never came back. I wish from the bottom of my heart that she is safe, and she will come back soon. If anyone has any small information that might help to find her, I would like you to help me. Thank you

She is hurt. She does not know what to do. Right after she disappeared, I found a pregnancy test with two red lines on it. My assumption of her disappearance is because of finding out her pregnancy with someone. I am still not sure why exactly she disappeared so suddenly, but I am sure that she is hurt or is in need. Please help her and me.

Right after I woke up on her bed, I found this in her bathroom. It was shocking, but I felt like I ascertained what really happened and why she disappeared so suddenly. Probably, she found out that she is pregnant to her ex-boyfriend after he broke up with her. If it is really so, we really need to find her as soon as possible. She must need help. She must be panicking alone right now.
