

Site Analysis

LOCATION: [place name]

10 E 14th; 16 E 14th; 70 5th ave

SIZE/ EDGES/ BOUNDARIES: [big, small, square feet, enclosed by streets, etc.]

The buildings are on large main streets that simply inserted between other buildings. If you didn't know that the locations were significant, you wouldn't have realized.

CONTEXT/ HISTORY: [qualities of the area/neighborhood, how has it been used in the past, are there important events or stories that have taken place]

The buildings were used for / events took place in the NY Women's Suffrage League, Women's Christian Temperance Union, and W.E.B Dubois and the crisis magazine.

USE/ USERS: [who is using the space, how many, what are they like, how are they using the space]

Today, the buildings are used for other various businesses. 70 5th ave is owned and operated by The New School. 10 E 14th has apartments, interior design business, and a bank. 16 E 14th is used as a health center.

METAPHORS/ ASSOCIATIONS: [symbolism, higher ideas it represents]

Thoughts, actions, words suppressed.
Call to action for change. Civil involvement.
Historical element. Women's suffrage movement.
Old vs. new. Replaced.

VISUAL CHARACTERISTICS: [key visual features of the site, high-low elements, far view, close up details]

There are clear sidewalks in front of the buildings. The buildings have been remodeled but there are some parts of the old architecture. There are glass windows and doors.

SOUND, LIGHT, WEATHER CONDITIONS: [what do you see, hear, feel at a selected time of the day]

I hear cars driving past, people talking and walking. At this time of the year it is sunny and warm. There are people going in and out of the buildings.

BUILT ELEMENTS: [infrastructure, obstructions, man-made materials]

Two out of three buildings have scaffolding in the way.

NATURAL ELEMENTS: [water, plantlife, formations, terrain]

There are some trees in front of the buildings but they obstruct it from a far view.

SENSE OF PLACE: [emotions, how does the space make you feel]

Overlooked, ignored, overwhelmed
