

LOOK!
PARIS!

THIS JOURNAL BELONGS TO:

(PARIS RESEARCHER CANDIDATE)

AGE:

Paris was born

1 AD

CAN YOU FIND THIS ROOM?

Our research starts here!

You were born

2021

Find these objects and connect them to the respective shop (Be careful! The scissors are in the next room)

cheese factory

tailor butcher

locksmith

did you know...

signs were the first form of advertisement

NEXT ROOM

Keep walking, and do not climb the stairs. On the left, walk to the second room, and find this map:

Connect the dots to find what the symbol of Paris was for more than a thousand years!

Can you find this symbol anywhere in this room?

did you know...

The city's motto is Fluctuat Nec Mergitur which means Tossed but not sunk.

Once you leave
the Museum Carnavalet, try to spot the symbol of the city of Paris in your school, and on buildings around Paris!

Can you find a scale model of Bastille in this room?

Do you remember what you did last Bastille day?

This was Bastille on the same day in the year 1789, 232 years ago.

JULY 14TH, 1789

THIS IS WHAT HAPPENED...

The people in the city did not have money to buy bread, so they decided to protest. On the 14th of July 1789, they burned down Bastille (which at the time was a prison) in order to get arms.

This day marked the beginning of the FRENCH REVOLUTION.

French Revolution

1789-1799

2021

ANSWERS

CONGRATULATIONS!

You're officially a Paris Researcher!
Go get your diploma at the front desk!

kids at carnavales :)