ALEX

Dear Alex,

We rarely reflect on the support we find in the people around us. It has been really hard for me to find people who are engaged + inspired and I wanted to give back to those who keep me motivated. Each dot on the ring I have made you marks another person in this system of mine. If you see another ring, please remember that we learn from those around us. I want to thank you for your presence. Please know you are loved + appreciated by people you may not even know.

LOVE OLIVEA
