

Usually, about 10:30 is when I wake up for the day to start at my apartment in New York City. To be honest, it is quite “lucky” in a way to experience this historical time at one of the most affected cities in the world. Before this, I never thought that New York City, the economic center of the world will enforce the law to shut down almost every business. And also never thought that someday, it became illegal to go outside.

Morning

Making lunch and dinner for myself

Mention: have never done this before; usually, think what to eat before sleeping; used to hate washing dishes by myself, but now feeling satisfied when cleaning; I think I am becoming a chef

My little plant

Mention: how it grows through days

Afternoon

5:00-7:00 expecting amazon fresh delivery

Mention: feeling very exciting about this, I usually like to unpack deliveries of clothes and cosmetics, but now feeling even more excited about unpacking fresh food; one box with only three little items, I can see why they did that but it is such a waste

I opened the door when making sure that no one is outside, then I spray on each side of the box with strong

Evening

7:00 New Yorker's cheers

I would communicate my video with a little hand-drawn character on a piece of paper.

Meanwhile, comparing what habits I have changed into.
