

pink, according to me

sol jhn

i have always been pink, and my sister has always been blue.

there is no color prettier than the color pink.

i love these pinks.

i've seen all kinds of pinks, and no pink is the same.

i hate these pinks.

*some pinks are happy,
some pinks are quiet,
some pinks say something;
other pinks say nothing at all.*

when life change

when life changes and all is said and done, my love for pink is still the same.

when life gives me lemons, just give me pink.
